During the week of Nov. 5th Harry Hanbury, roving AANR correspondent, will be taking some aerial drone photos of the resort for us to add to our marketing photo portfolio. Some of Harry's earlier photos of Lake Como may be seen in the Nov. Bulletin article on the FYN Bash. (lakefront, FYN event area and water slide aerials)

Lake Como designated photographers will be taking photos documenting Freedom Festival Nov. 9-11, 2018 in the public areas of Lake Como.

Please be aware that by entering Lake Como grounds during this event, you consent to your likeness being used and reproduced, without compensation, in any and all media, whether now known or hereafter devised, forever, and you release Lake Como Co-op, Inc., its successors, assigns and licensees from any liability whatsoever of any nature in this regard.

Individual photos releases will be obtained whenever possible; however, due to the anticipated crowd size this crowd release is also being posted.

ROAD CLOSURE: Please note we will be closing Cot Road from the sandy beach to the hot tub briefly to ALL vehicles Sunday November 11th for about 15 minutes from around 10:45 am to around 11:00 am during the Veterans' March to the pool.

Due to space limitations in this issue, we are deferring Halloween photos to a future issue.

Charity chipping golf tournament Saturday Nov. 10th – register 10:30 am in West Grove – starts 11:00 am. $5 donation to Athena House to play.

Veterans Parade & Tribute Ceremony will be Sunday November 11th. Assembly starts after 10:00. Parade will start before 11:00 for poolside tribute ceremony lasting from around 11:00 to 11:30. Those who wish to participate contact Phil Jacobsen: boileradvisor@yahoo.com.

Note that the parade will start from around the boat ramp at the beach, travel down Cot Road, and will turn into the pool area before the Cafe. Civilians are invited to line the parade route with flags and banners.

Lake Como registered guests are invited to participate in all our activities & events.
